 Prayer of Petition (from A Book of Reformed Prayers, 1998)
 O Lord our God, you created the heavens and the earth and you govern them in the perfection of your holy thoughts. But now sin and great suffering are in the world and death reigns over us because we do not want to understand your thoughts. Grant us wills that are right and lift the veil from our eyes so that we may see you as your Son Jesus Christ taught us to see you, and so may keep ourselves in you, in silence and expectation.
 Amen.
